Venango Campus Starts New Tradition

To promote school spirit, the first annual Blue and Gold Day was held Thursday, October 12. Students decked themselves out in various combinations of blue and gold. Lee Beichner and Nancy Zinz, showing their colors, posed for the photographer.

LAURIE SHINE takes time out to catch up on her studying.

BRUCE SEIGWORTH and JEANNE WHITLING make a good match.

MICHELE MCCOY and HOLLY GARIEPY put their heads together to plan next year's Blue and Gold Day.

Ghosts And Goblins Celebrate

The Halloween Dance and Fright Night were held Friday, October 30. Costumes were judged by the audience, and the winners were awarded albums. The imaginative costumes of the clowns, a punk rocker and a belly dancer were recognized.

MARLENE ELLISTON and date disguised as boy and ghoulfriend.

Three's not a crowd for MICHELE MCCOY, AL CARSON, and JANEY SLAGLE.

JANEY SLAGLE. Is this where the new Clarion perfume came from?

Fright Night continued into the wee hours, while students snacked, watched thrillers, or napped.

These creepy fellows, JIM SINGER, DICK DAVIS, and STEPHANIE SINGER join in on the Fright Night fun.

LISA BIRCHARD, RHONDA SMITH, and friends dance to the beat of "The Groove Master."

Former Venango Campus Student Honored

On January 17, 1988 dedication ceremonies were held for the renovated Montgomery Hall. After being closed for a number of years the building was reopened as a classroom and general purpose building. The School of Nursing is housed on the second floor. The additional space provided by Montgomery Hall has eased overcrowding on Venango Campus.
